紅情

Lost Creek Station, a band proudly rooted in Lost Creek, Austin, Texas. Our music is all about fusion — where East meets West, tradition meets innovation, and genres blend into something fresh and unexpected. From classic Eastern melodies to the vibrant energy of jazz, pop, and rock 'n' roll, our performances celebrate cultural crossover and creative storytelling through sound. Our specialty lies in crafting dynamic arrangements that honor the old while embracing the new — what we like to call a "new-oriental and western fusion." Each performance is a journey across styles and emotions, designed to resonate with a diverse audience.

Shaolin Temple Cultural Center, the Center teaches traditional Shaolin Kungfu, contemporary Wu Shu and Tai Chi for both children and adults. It is the only official Shaolin Kungfu Training Center authorized to teach Shaolin Kungfu on behalf of the Shaolin Temple in Henan, China. Its mission is to spread Shaolin Kungfu and culture by teaching the 1,500-year-old art of Kungfu.

The Summit Lion Dance team, is a non-profit organization composed of students from kindergarten through college. The team focuses on developing confidence and leadership skills amongst the students and offering cultural awareness to the community. The team has grown to include students of all ethnicities as long as they have passion, enthusiasm, and motivation. The Summit Lion Dance team performs year-round in Austin at weddings, multicultural events, festivals, and businesses during the Lunar New Year. All the proceeds from the performances go directly to the Walnut Creek Vietnamese Foundation which supports the Lion Dance team as well as the Dual Language Program. The Foundation provides scholarship funds for students who display leadership and continue to support the Dual Language Program.
